The future of prevention and health promotion at the workplace & thank you Dr. Karl Kuhn from the ENWHP

Dr. Karl Kuhn, the ENWHP Chairman and one of the network initiators, retired at the end March from his position as Chief Scientist at the Federal Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (BAuA) in Dortmund. Around 80 colleagues and networkers from home and abroad, attended a workshop on 1st March on "The future of prevention and health promotion at the workplace" to mark this occasion. more...

Stress at work today - depression tomorrow?

Despite all the speculation on whether the incidence of mental disorders has really increased in recent years, there is general agreement both in public and professional circles that one of the most important issues in the field of prevention in future will be to maintain peoples' mental health at work. In view of the new work related risks that have developed through the changing stress factors and from the threats resulting from the global economic and financial crisis, scientific research in this area will be a priority.
